THE RAIN FELL ON THE SHOPPERS AND DEALERS

The rain, and the fact that the time for buying is drawing to a close, kept the public from attending the motion picture houses in large numbers and what the shows lost the storekeepers found. Though it was a disagreeable night under foot there were many persons on the street and most of the shops were crowded with buyers.

McInerney's, quite the farthest away from the retail center, had its crowd in the early part of the evening and the stock of neckwear had many withdrawals. Every department in the store had attention and the sales were satisfactory in consequence. There is plenty of articles suitable for Christmas still in the store awaiting buyers.

When the streets are as muddy as Honolulu streets were last night there is a renewed interest in footwear. Wearers of fine slippers feel the need of something heavier and last night they went into the McInerney Shoe Store, on Fort street above King to get their wants filled. The business this season has been satisfactory. The assortment of shoes and slippers for all kinds of weather, and for all purposes, is large in this store. The quality is good for the makers of the best American shoes are represented. Just as a hint it is remarked that for a Christmas gift a pair of shoes, represented by one of the beautiful orders which the management gives its patrons, will prove most acceptable to man or woman.

If it is not too late let a word be said about the turkey for dinner tomorrow or Monday. The Metropolitan Meat Market has a number of very fine, well-fed and fat, birds fit to grace the table of a king. They are in the same class with those sold for Thanksgiving. No better praise could be asked. Your order, if sent in this morning, will have attention by the afternoon delivery.

There will be an exchange of pictures of different kinds this season and not all of them will be framed. There may be strangers in town who do not know the reputation the Pacific Framing Company, on Nuuanu below Hotel street, has for doing this work in a first-class manner. The stock of mouldings and the assortment of prints carried in this compact store will surprise those who have never been there.

Fitzpatrick Brothers began advertising holiday goods at a time when the public was looking for good smokes and the result has been a very good holiday business for this popular store. The assortment of calabash and briar pipes is not excelled in Honolulu. Indeed it is a question if it is equalled. And the prices charged for the good quality smokes is most satisfactory. "He" will appreciate a box of cigars from Fitzpatrick's if he is a smoker because the quality is good. The same may be said for the cigarettes.

Another glimpse into the beauties of the Orient is not ill timed the day before Christmas. Step into the store of Isoshima, otherwise known as the "Japanese Bazaar" on Fort street near the convent and you will see real Japan, minus the real cherry blossoms. So many things are there for so little money that it is not surprising that the store has been well patronized during the holidays. Many beautiful garments for ladies and a few of the garments that men wear are here for little money.

And still another glimpse of Japan is to be had at Sayegusa's on Nuuanu street above Hotel. This establishment contains a wealth of embroidered and plain silk goods, old ivories and crepes. Lacquer in many shapes are offered at unusually low prices and there are brass candlesticks and incense burners galore. Here, too, and things sold so cheap that it is difficult to understand how such good value can be produced for so little coin. In parasols and shirtwaists ladies will find much to admire.

THE DAY'S DOINGS ON THE STOCK EXCHANGE

In spite of the special Christmas interests which are commanding the attention of the community these days the stock market, yesterday, more than held steady, although transactions were limited. Fifteen shares of the McBryde Sugar Company sold at 4.00, a gain of fifty cents over quotations earlier in the week. The principal item of interest was the sale of 151 shares of the Hawaiian Pineapple Company at the morning call at 31.00. This is the same price registered at the last sale recently.

One of the encouraging indications for an upward market was the demand for Hawaiian Commercial and Sugar Company, fifty shares going at 33.25, the former sale price being 33.00.

Following the session of the Stock Exchange today there will be no more sessions until December 31.

The registered sales on the Stock Exchange yesterday are:

McBryde Sugar Co., 15 at 4.00.

Hawaiian Pineapple Co., 151 at 31.00.

Hawaiian Commercial and Sugar Co., 70 at 33.25.

INTERESTING TO MOTHERS—HOW TO CURE COUGHS AND COLDS.

There is one subject which always interests the mothers of young children, and that is how to treat their coughs and colds, or to ward off a threatened attack of croup. For this purpose we can recommend Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. It always proves beneficial. In case of croup it should be given as soon as the croupy cough appears, so as to prevent the attack. Keep it at hand ready for instant use. Many mothers do so, and it saves them much uneasiness. For sale by all dealers, Benson, Smith & Co., Ltd., Agents for Hawaii.
